Fezell Takes Stand

Defendant ~~Vic Fezell~~ took the stand at 9:30 a.m. Monday in Austin.

He is relating testimony concerning a campaign contribution receipt book, which he said was in his desk when the FBI searched his office in September of 1986.

Also testifying Monday prior to Fezell going on the stand, was FBI special agent Bob Zane. Zane testified that he was made the agent in charge of the case in April of 1985.

He testified between $300-350 was found in Fezell's office desk in an envelope marked "campaign contribution: for deposit." He testified that during the search of Fezell's home two $100 bills were found.

Zane testified the agents checked 15-20 "known" bank accounts of the Fezells and also safety deposit boxes.
