Merry Christmas

294
District Attorney Vic Fezell and his wife, Berni, have a real grabber for a Christmas card this year. It features their young son, Gregory, sitting on the lap of a famous person.

Santa Claus? Hardly.

Greg is perched on the lap of Harry Reasoner, who has made several trips to Waco to film a "60 Minutes" segment on Fezell's experiences with Henry Lee Lucas, the Texas Rangers and so on.

Fezell's assistant, John Ben Sutter, takes credit for the color photograph. And there's still no word from the "60 Minutes" staff on when the Fezell piece will air.
